INSURING AGREEMENT

We provide the insurance described in this policy in return for payment of the premium and subject to the terms, conditions and limits as set out in the Coverage Summary page.

All amounts of insurance, premiums and other amounts expressed in this policy are in Canadian Currency.

This form consists of four sections:

SECTION I describes the insurance for your property.

SECTION II describes the insurance for your legal liability to others because of bodily injury and property damage.

SECTION III describes the insurance for the Optional Coverages you may buy.

SECTION IV describes Policy Conditions.

We shall be liable only for the coverages as indicated on the Coverage Summary page.

In the event that any of the property insured be lost, destroyed or damaged by an insured peril, the Insurer will indemnify the Insured against the direct loss so caused to an amount not exceeding, whichever is the least of:

- (a) the actual cash value of the property at the time of loss, destruction or damage;
- (b) the interest of the Insured in the property;
- (c) the limit of insurance provided by this policy in respect of the property lost, destroyed or damaged.

Provided, however, that where the insurance applies to the property of more than one person or interest, the Insurer's total liability for loss sustained by all such persons and interests shall be limited in the aggregate to the specified limit or limits of liability.

IMPORTANT

This policy contains various exclusions and limitations which eliminate or restrict coverage. Please read it carefully.

Insurance cannot be a source of profit. It is only designed to indemnify you against actual losses or expenses incurred by you or for which you are liable.

3. Fair Rental Value – If an Insured Peril makes that part of the dwelling or detached private structures rented to others or held for rental by you unfit for occupancy, payment shall be for the reasonable time required to repair or replace that part of the dwelling or detached private structures rented or held for rental. Misrepresentation – 1. If a person applying for insurance falsely describes the property to the prejudice of the Insurer, or misrepresents or fraudulently omits to communicate any circumstance that is material to be made known to the insurer in order to enable it to judge the risk to be undertaken, the contract is void as to any property in relation to which the misrepresentation or omission is material.

Property of Others – 2. Unless otherwise specifically stated in the contract, the Insurer is not liable for loss or damage to property owned by any person other than the Insured, unless the interest of the Insured therein is stated in the contract.

Change of Interest – 3. The Insurer is liable for loss or damage occurring after an authorized assignment under the Bankruptcy Act or change of title by succession, by operation of law, or by death.

Material Change – 4. Any change material to the risk and within the control and knowledge of the Insured avoids the contract as to the part affected thereby, unless the change is promptly notified in writing to the Insurer or its local agent, and the Insurer when so notified may return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid and cancel the contract, or may notify the Insured in writing that, if he desires the contract to continue in force, he must, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice, pay to the Insurer an additional premium, and in default of such a payment the contract is no longer in force and the Insurer shall return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid.

1. This contract may be terminated:
 - (a) by the Insurer giving to the Insured fifteen days' notice of termination by registered mail or five days' written notice of termination personally delivered;
 - (b) by the Insured at any time on request.

 - (b) the refund shall accompany the notice unless the premium is subject to adjustment or determination as to amount, in which case the refund shall be made as soon as practicable.
3. Where this contract is terminated by the Insured, the Insurer shall refund as soon as practicable the excess of the premium actually paid by the Insured over the short rate premium for the expired time, but in no event shall the short rate premium for the expired time be deemed to be less than any minimum retained premium specified.
4. The refund may be made by money, postal or express company money order or cheque payable at par.
5. The fifteen days mentioned in clause (a) of subcondition (1) of this condition commences to run on the day following the receipt of the registered letter at the post office to which it is addressed.

Who May Give Notice and Proof – 8. Notice of loss may be given and proof of loss may be made by the agent of the Insured named in the contract in case of absence or inability of the Insured to give the notice or make the proof, and absence or inability being satisfactorily accounted for, or in the like case, or if the Insured refuses to do so, by a person to whom any part of the insurance money is payable.

Salvage – 9.

1. The Insured, in the event of any loss or damage to any property insured under the contract, shall take all reasonable steps to prevent further damage to such property so damaged and to prevent damage to other property insured hereunder including, if necessary, its removal to prevent damage or further damage thereto.

Entry, Control, Abandonment – 10. After loss or damage to insured property, the Insurer has an immediate right of access and entry by accredited agents sufficient to enable them to survey and examine the property, and to make an estimate of the loss or damage, and, after the insured has secured the property, a further right of access and entry sufficient to enable them to make appraisal or particular estimate of the loss or damage, but the Insurer is not entitled to the control or possession of the insured property, and without the consent of the Insurer there can be no abandonment to it of insured property.

Appraisal – 11. In the event of disagreement as to the value of the property insured, the property saved or the amount of the loss, those questions shall be determined by appraisal as provided under The Insurance Act before there can be any recovery under this contract whether the right to recover on the contract is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions. There shall be no right to an appraisal until a specific demand therefore is made in writing and until after proof of loss has been delivered.

When Loss Payable – 12. The loss is payable within sixty days after completion of the proof of loss, unless the contract provides for a shorter period.

Replacement – 13.

1. The Insurer, instead of making payment, may repair, rebuild, or replace the property damaged or lost, giving written notice of its intention so to do within thirty days after receipt of the proofs of loss.
2. In that event the Insurer shall commence to so repair, rebuild, or replace the property within forty-five days after receipt of the proofs of loss, and shall thereafter proceed with all due diligence to the completion thereof.

Action – 14. Every action or proceeding against the Insurer for the recovery of any claim under or by virtue of this contract is absolutely barred unless commenced within one year next after the loss or damage occurs.

Notice – 15. Any written notice to the Insurer may be delivered at, or sent by registered mail to, the chief agency or head office of the Insurer in the Province. Written notice may be given to the Insured named in the contract by letter personally delivered to him or by registered mail addressed to him at his latest post office address as notified to the Insurer. In this condition, the expression “registered” means registered in or outside Canada.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

With respect to Section II – Liability Coverage, including Voluntary Compensation for Residence Employees Endorsement when added, Statutory Conditions 1, 3, 4, 5 and 15 only apply. Otherwise, all of the Conditions set forth under the titles Statutory Conditions and Additional Conditions apply with respect to all of the perils insured by this policy except as these Conditions may be modified or supplemented by the Forms or Endorsements included herein or attached.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS

Notice to Authorities – 1. Where the loss is due to a malicious act, burglary, robbery, theft or attempt thereat, or is suspected to be so due, the Insured shall give immediate notice thereof to the police or other authorities having jurisdiction.

No Benefit to Bailee – 2. It is warranted by the Insured that this insurance shall in no wise inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any carrier or other bailee.

Pair and Set – 3. In the case of loss or damage to any article or articles, whether scheduled or unscheduled, which are a part of a set, the measure of loss of or damage to such article or articles shall be a reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the set, but in no event shall such loss or damage be construed to mean total loss of set.

Parts – 4. In the case of loss of or damage to any part of the insured property whether scheduled or unscheduled, consisting, when complete for use, of several parts, the Insurer is not liable for more than the insured value of the part lost or damaged, including the cost of installation.

Sue and Labour – 5. It is the duty of the Insured in the event that any property insured hereunder is lost to take all reasonable steps in and about the recovery of such property. The insurer shall contribute pro rata towards any reasonable and proper expenses in connection with the foregoing according to the respective interests of the parties.

Basis of Settlement – 6. Unless otherwise provided, the Insurer is not liable beyond the actual cash value of the property at the time any loss or damage occurs and the loss or damage shall be ascertained or estimated according to such actual cash value with proper deduction for depreciation, however caused, and shall in no event exceed what it would then cost to repair or replace the same with material of like kind and quality.

Subrogation – 7. The Insurer, upon making any payment or assuming liability therefore under this policy, shall be subrogated to all rights of recovery of the Insured against any person, and may bring action in the name of the Insured to enforce such rights. Where the net amount recovered after deducting the costs of recovery is not sufficient to provide a complete indemnity for the loss or damage suffered, that amount shall be divided between the Insurer and the Insured in the proportion in which the loss or damage has been borne by them respectively. Your right to recover from us is not affected by any release from liability entered into by you prior to loss.

LIBERALIZATION CLAUSE

If, after the issuance of this policy and before its expiration, there be adopted and published for use in this Province by the Insurance Company any forms, endorsements or rules by which the Insurance provided by this policy could be extended or broadened without additional premium charge, either by endorsement or substitution of form, then, as to loss occurring after the effective date of such adoption and publication, such extended or broadened insurance shall inure to the benefit of the Insured hereunder as though such endorsement or substitution of form had been made.

This policy is subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein together with such other terms and conditions as may be endorsed hereon or added hereto. No term or condition of this policy shall be deemed to be waived in whole or in part by the Insurer unless the waiver is clearly expressed in writing signed by a person authorized for that purpose by the Insurer.

SICK OIL TANK?

You can make the environment
healthier.

The Problem: After 20 years your oil tank doesn't owe you a thing. After all, it's worked hard for you long enough and it needs to be changed.

The Result: The appearance of your tank can be deceiving. Moisture develops internally and your tank rusts from the inside. Rust and corrosion will affect the welds at the legs. Pinhole leaks will develop and empty the tank.

The Cost: The Department of Environment will order you, the property owner, to clean any spills! Our average cost for this is close to $100,000 and even more if the oil escapes from your property.

The Cure: Avoid these high costs, choose the best alternative, and replace your tank if it is over 20 years old or showing signs of premature deterioration.

Make sure your new tank is installed by a professional.

Your Mutual Insurance Company continues to look after your safety. It is 100% owned and governed by its policyholders through an elected Board of Directors.

When issues arise, decisions can be made right here in the Maritimes by people who understand your concerns.

People just like you.

Why should I be worried about ...

Your sump pump should be maintained regularly.

When spring arrives ensure that...

- Your pump is plugged in.
- Your float switch works.
- Your pump is tested!

Your roof will need to be replaced eventually.

Remember, home maintenance is your responsibility and not your insurance company's. After a long cold winter you should...

- Check your roof for loose shingles.
- Make a note of any leaks.

Keep your chimney clear & cleaned.

Before and after the cold season make sure that...

- Your chimney is cleaned on a regular basis.
- Creosote has not built up in your fireplace.
It's the real culprit and not always obvious to the eye.
- You have a professional chimney sweep examine your chimney and clean it if need be.
